Guidance on applying the marking grids for the 6-mark response

This question focuses on candidates' selecting examples from the ancient source material which has been included the Question Paper Insert and expressing conclusions based on the selected examples in relation to the question posed. Therefore candidates will be assessed on the quality of the points made and the range and quality of the examples they have selected.

The expectation is that candidates will base their answer solely on the material they can gleam from the source material provided.

Level	Marks	Description

1	1	 little or no engagement with the question draws and expresses points which are of little relevance and are supported with little evidence from the stimulus material

Guidance on applying the grids

A Level 4 response would typically include at least three strong points. May contain additional underdeveloped points.

A Level 3 response would typically include at least two strong points, or one strong point and a range of underdeveloped points, or a range of underdeveloped points only.

A Level 2 response would typically include at least one strong point, or at least two underdeveloped points.

A Level 1 response would typically include at least one relevant observation or one weak point only.

0 = No response or no response worthy of credit.

Strong point (annotate with a tick plus **):

- (i) a valid and well-understood reference to the source (i.e. focused reference to content of inscription or precise words or phrases from passage); with
- (ii) full explanation of its importance and how it answers the question.

- (i) an example that is relevant but is not well-understood or
- (ii) the explanation is not fully developed, or lacking focus.

Question	Answer	Marks	Guidance
5	Assess against criteria in the 6-mark AO3 grid (see above).	AO3 6
	Answers may include: Lysistrata uses the analogy of wool- making to explain her solution. At first glance she states how to solve the city's problems: • get rid of the "muck" • beat out crooks/crime • integrate foreigners • draw in the colonies to create unity
	This source also guides us through the wool-making process and uses associated vocabulary: • fleece • pick out thistles; • card • basket (for wool) • Ball of wool • Weave • make an overcoat.
	 However, neither process seems completely clear. It is not clear how non- citizens fit into the wool making process Is Lysistrata really recommending decapitation for those clinging to power? How do the colonies get the wool? Candidates may choose either wool-making or politics or may say both/neither.

Guidance on applying the marking grids for the 8-mark extended response

Two Assessment Objectives are being assessed in this question – AO2 (Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of ancient sources) and AO3 (Analyse, evaluate and respond to ancient sources). The two Assessment Objectives are equally weighted. Examiners must use a best fit approach to the marking grid. Where there are both strengths and weaknesses in a particular response, particularly imbalanced responses in terms of the assessment objectives, examiners must carefully consider which level is the best fit for the performance overall. For example, you should not be able to achieve a mark of 6 made up of AO2 = 5 and AO3 = 1.

Marks for AO2 should be rewarded for the detail and accuracy of the knowledge of the ancient sources they deploy in their answer and the candidate's understanding of these ancient sources, including their interpretation and an understanding of their limitations.

Marks for AO3 should be awarded for how well the response is addressing the question / argued, for candidates selecting relevant examples from the ancient sources they have studied and drawing and expressing conclusions based on the selected examples in relation to the question posed. Candidates will be assessed on the quality of the conclusions and points they make and the range and quality of the examples they have selected.

For example, in relation to the question 'The Athenian house was like a prison for Greek women.' How far do you agree with this statement?, details drawn from sources explaining that men were in a position of authority over women, would be evidence of AO2 whilst concluding that this would be akin to being imprisoned as they were not free to make their own decisions and had to do as their husbands wished would be evidence of AO3.

8-mark grid for the extended response guestion

AO2 = 4 marks = Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of ancient sources

AO3 = 4 marks = Analyse, evaluate and respond to ancient sources

		Analyse, evaluate and respond to another sources
Level	Marks	Description
4	7–8	 detailed knowledge with good interpretations of the ancient sources and a good understanding of their limitations (AO2) well-argued response to the question which is supported by a range of well-selected examples (AO3) The response is logically structured, with a well-developed, coherent line of reasoning.
3	5–6	 some knowledge with some interpretations of the ancient sources and some understanding of their limitations (AO2) a good response to the question which is supported by a range of relevant examples (AO3) The response is well structured with a clear line of reasoning.
2	3–4	 limited knowledge with limited interpretations of the ancient sources and limited understanding of their limitations (AO2) a reasonable response to the question which is supported by a few relevant examples (AO3) The response presents a line of reasoning which is mostly relevant but may lack structure.
1	1–2	 very limited knowledge with very little or no interpretation of the sources or understanding of their limitations (AO2) a very limited response to the question with very limited reference to the ancient sources (AO3) The information is communicated in an unstructured way.

Guidance on applying the grids

A Level 4 response would typically include four or more strong points each supported by an accurate reference to a source. May contain additional underdeveloped points. Where appropriate to the question set, a good understanding of limitations of the ancient sources.

A Level 3 response would typically include two to four strong points each supported by an accurate reference to a source.

May contain additional underdeveloped points. Where appropriate to the question set, some understanding of the limitations of the ancient sources.

A Level 2 response would typically include one to three strong points each supported by an accurate reference to a source and/or a range of underdeveloped points that demonstrate some engagement with the question.

Where appropriate to the question set, limited understanding of the limitations of the ancient sources.

A Level 1 response would typically show a small number of underdeveloped points. Where appropriate to the question set, very little or no interpretation of the ancient sources.

^{0 =} No response or no response worthy of credit.

Strong point (annotate with a tick plus 🐪):

- (i) a valid and well-understood reference to a source (AO2) (e.g., Source C and specific reference to content of that source); with
- (ii) full explanation of its importance and how it answers the question (AO3).

Guidance on applying the marking grids for the 12-mark extended response

Two Assessment Objectives are being assessed in this question – AO2 (Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of literature) and AO3 (Analyse, evaluate and respond to literature). The two Assessment Objectives are equally weighted. Examiners must use a best fit approach to the marking grid. Where there are both strengths and weaknesses in a particular response, particularly imbalanced responses in terms of the assessment objectives, examiners must carefully consider which level is the best fit for the performance overall. For example, you should not be able to achieve a mark of 10 made up of AO2 = 8 and AO3 = 2.

Marks for AO2 should be rewarded for the detail and accuracy of the knowledge of the ancient sources they deploy in their answer and the candidate's understanding of these ancient sources, including their interpretation and an understanding of their limitations. Knowledge of the modern world does not count towards AO2, but may be used to support and explain arguments for AO3. Marks for AO3 should be awarded for how well the response is addressing the question / argued, for candidates selecting relevant examples from the ancient sources they have studied and drawing and expressing conclusions based on the selected examples in relation to the question posed. Candidates will be assessed on the quality of the conclusions and points they make and the range and quality of the examples they have selected.

For example, in relation to the question "A modern man would find ancient Athenian society unfair." How far do you agree with this opinion, details drawn from sources explaining that men were in a position of authority over women, would be evidence of AO2 whilst concluding that this would be considered unfair by a modern man with modern ideas about gender equality would be evidence of AO3.

12-mark grid for the extended response question

AO3 = 6 marks = Analyse, evaluate and respond to ancient sources

Level	Marks	Description
4	10–12	 detailed knowledge with good interpretations of the ancient sources and a good understanding of their limitations (AO2) well-argued response to the question which is supported by a range of well-selected examples (AO3) The response is logically structured, with a well-developed, coherent line of reasoning.

0 = No response or no response worthy of credit.

Guidance on applying the grids

A Level 4 response typically includes five or more strong points each supported by a valid and well understood reference to a source or example.

May contain additional underdeveloped points. Must include some references to material not printed on the paper.

A Level 3 response typically includes three to five strong points, each supported by an accurate reference to a source or example. May contain additional underdeveloped points.

A Level 2 response typically includes one to three strong points, each supported by an accurate reference to a source or example, and/or a range of underdeveloped points that demonstrate some engagement with the question.

May contain additional underdeveloped points.

A Level 1 response typically includes at least two underdeveloped points.

Strong point (annotate with a tick plus *.):

- (i) a valid and well-understood reference to a source or relevant example (AO2); with
- (ii) full explanation of how the response addresses the question, including selecting relevant examples from the ancient sources they have studied (which can include reference to material not printed on the paper); and
- (iii) drawing and expressing conclusions based on the selected examples in relation to the question posed (AO3).

- (i) an example that is relevant but is not well-understood; and/or
- (ii) the explanation is not fully developed, or lacking focus.

Question Answer	Marks	Guidance
'A modern man would find ancient Athenian society unfair.' Using sources you have studied, explain how far you agree with this opinion. Assess against criteria in the 12-mark essay grid (see above). Possible arguments may include (AO3): Candidates may agree or not with this statement. A modern man may find the arrangements detailed in the sources unfair. For example, he may resent being required to participate in political life, and registering for citizenship may be tedious. Equally there may be aspects which are seen as fair, for example freedom of debate. Candidates may appreciate that one's social status could affect whether or not one felt the system to be "fair". Comparison with the modern world should be assessed in relation to AO3, as this will be used to explain a line of argument regarding the views of a modern man. Modern references might include: Not everybody today takes part in politics and may not like the expectation that they would May not like the range of jobs May not approve of the inequality of the genders May not approve of the restriction of voting to certain individuals Expect a counter argument for higher levels of AO3	12 made up of AO2 = 6 & AO3 = 6	 12 different points are not required provided that detail is given from the sources. For higher Levels candidates should offer detail from specific sources. Excessive discussions of modern life should not form the main focus of the argument. An AO2 heavy response may focus on details from the ancient sources but not draw many valid conclusions. This is likely to limit the level at which this work can be rewarded. Explanation of references to sources: (A.1.ii) is reference to prescribed sources booklet: A – Topic A (Women in Ancient Greece) 1 – Section 1 (The status of Women in Athens) ii – Source ii (Extract from Pericles' Funeral Speech)

Question	Answer	Marks	Guidance
	Possible supporting evidence from sources (AO2):
	Expect support from sources in the prescribed booklet or insert (example references given below in brackets). Credit other relevant sources also.
	From the insert: • expectation to engage in political/civic life (Source F) • men and women have their own, clear jobs and responsibilities (Source B)
	From the prescribed sources booklet: • the exclusion of women/slaves from citizenship (B.2.i) • marriage was arranged (A.1.iv) • having to apply for citizenship/undergo checks (B.2.i) • had to provide a house and income for the family (A.1.iv) • life for a metic or slave would not be equal to that of a citizen. (B.2.ii; B.2.vii)
	 freedom to debate openly (B.3.ii) the ability to vote directly on issues in the Assembly, no dictator in charge (B.3.i) certain offices/positions, for example jurors, being appointed by lot not vote, so that the process couldn't be manipulated (B.3.iii) men and women have their own, clear jobs and responsibilities (A.3.iii; A.3.ii; A.2.iv; Source B)
