

Why study Psychology?

“My whole career, from local charity work to being an MP in Westminster, has been about working with the community. The insights into human behaviour I got from studying psychology continue to provide a strong foundation for this work.”

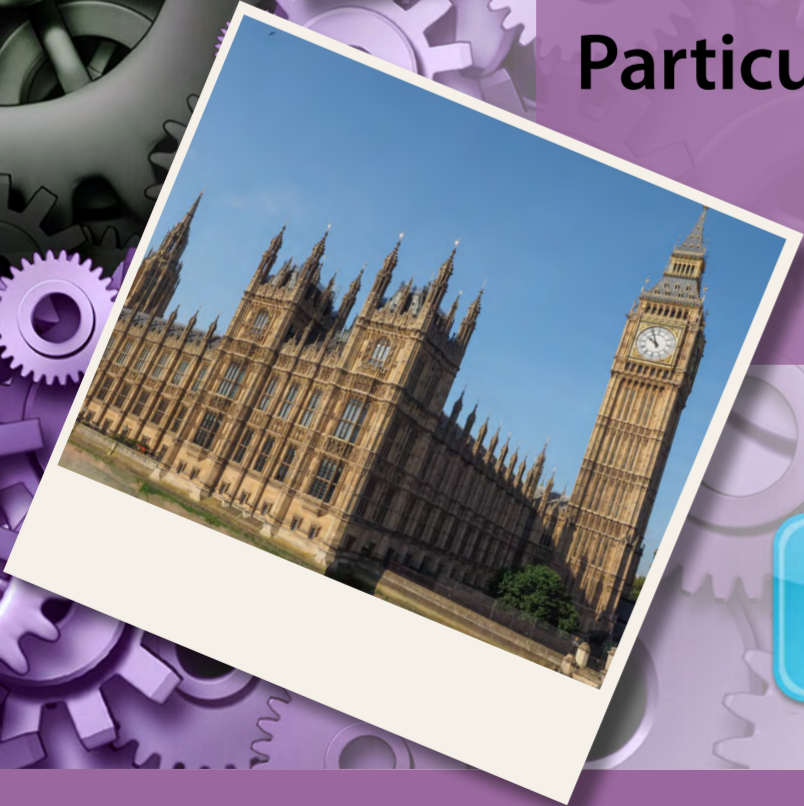

Name Sarah Champion

Qualifications in Psychology Degree in Psychology from Sheffield University

Current Job MP for Rotherham and Shadow Minister for Preventing Abuse and Domestic Violence

Particularly interested in Environmental psychology

Interesting fact Campaigns on behalf of sexual exploitation victims, which has led to changes in the law

@CfSocialScience
@ocr_psychology

Psychology can be useful in a number of careers including the police, prison and probation services, human resources, marketing, education, and mental health work.