

Where candidates do not have access to a printer that will enable them to print colour separated copies, a screen print showing that the colour printing process has been set, together with a composite copy of the publication will be accepted. Note that the screen print must be from the Advance Print Settings window as shown below:

(File → Advanced Print Settings → Separations Tab → for Output: select Separations → for These plates: select Used inks only).